THE LATEST.

Eighteen defendants, who were formerly officials of insurance companies, are expected to appear in the Criminal Courts in New York on Monday to answer to sixty-one indictments growing out of the life insurance investigations. District Attorney Jerome has announced that he will dispose of the cases as quickly as possible. It is expected that the first case called will be that of Dr. Walter R. Gillette, formerly vice president of the Mutual Life Insurance Company, who was indicted for forgery and perjury.

With the avowed object of uncovering and exposing to the growers the principal abuses which have so long existed in the handling of American cotton, and to encourage needed reforms, representatives of the cotton-growing, spinning and other interests of the cotton trade will meet in international conference at Atlanta on Monday for a three days' session. It is said that the leading foreign and domestic spinners of the world will be present at the conference.

William Jennings Bryan will begin a two-days' speaking trip through Western Kentucky to-day, leaving Louisville at 7:30 o'clock this morning. The first speech will be made at Elizabethtown, and the first day's tour will end with a speech at Owensboro to-night. To-morrow Mr. Bryan will speak at Morganfield, Marion, Princeton, Paducah, Mayfield, Fulton and Murray. A number of prominent politicians will make the trip with the distinguished Nebraskan.

The autumn session of the Spanish Parliament will begin October 10. Among the matters that will claim the attention of the Cortes is the present situation in Morocco and the part Spain took with France in putting down the turbulent tribesmen at Casa Blanca, as well as the question of the augmentation of the Spanish navy. It is reported in some quarters that the relations of church and state also will come to the fore.

Citizens and newspapers of Washington are vigorously protesting against the plan of the Park Commissioners to remove trees planted by famous men in order to make room for the Grant monument. It is generally regarded that neither the Secretary of War nor the President is in Washington, so that some effective means could be taken to prevent the carrying out of the scheme.

An important industrial event of the week will be the conference of cotton growers and spinners at Atlanta, Ga. More than 150 European cotton men have come here to take part in the meeting. The annual meetings of the Northern Pacific and Union Pacific Railroad Companies will be held on Tuesday, the former in New York and the latter in Salt Lake City.

Athletes everywhere already are in active training for their fall and winter sports. Basketball and hockey teams are arranging their schedules and preliminary work. Over the links of the Midlothian Golf Club at Chicago this week the women's national title will be contested. Detroit and Chicago will see the world's baseball championship decided.

Judge S. W. Hager spent yesterday resting in Frankfort preparatory to a hard week's campaigning. The Democratic candidate for Governor will be with William Jennings Bryan to-day and to-morrow, and will then devote his time until election day speaking in the western part of Kentucky.

On October 12 the case of Karl Hau will come up for revision. Hau is the former professor of international law at the George Washington University, of Washington, who was sentenced to death at Karlsruhe July 23 last for the murder of his mother-in-law, Frau Molitor, at Baden-Baden.

The governing bodies of two great religious denominations will meet during the week. The general conference of the Episcopal Church convenes at Richmond, Va., and the Council of the Congregational Church of the United States in Cleveland, O.

Trains are bringing enormous crowds of land-seekers, who utilize anything from wagons to automobiles to go to the lower Brule country, in South Dakota, to be opened to settlers this week. The drawing begins to-day, and indications are for a large attendance.

A number of additional promotions to the Japanese peerage are expected to be made shortly and to include Gonsuke Hayashi, Minister to China; M. Uchida, Minister to Austria-Hungary, and the Governors of Tokio, Osaka and Kioto.

Wilbur F. Wakeman, secretary of the American Protective Tariff League, on his return from a trip through the Middle West, admitted that he found a strong demand for tariff revision among the business men.

Lord Brampton, who was Sir Francis Hawkins, is dead at London. He was born in 1817.

This will be a memorable week in the history of Democratic campaigning in old Kentucky. Besides the sweeping tour that the distinguished Democrat, William Jennings Bryan, will make in Western Kentucky to-day and to-morrow, the hills and vales of the old Commonwealth will ring with truths voiced by many of the best Democratic speakers in the State. The special train bearing William Jennings Bryan and party on the tour will leave the Teat-street station of the Louisville and Nashville at 7:30 o'clock this morning, just fifteen minutes after the train bringing Mr. Bryan to Louisville arrives, should it be on time. This will give the distinguished speaker time to get a little breakfast before the train starts if he so desires.

Mr. Bryan telegraphed last night from St. Louis before boarding the train for Louisville that he will arrive in Louisville at 7:30 o'clock this morning over the Henderson route. Owing to the fact that Mr. Bryan has an engagement to speak at Bloomfield, Ind., Wednesday a change was made in the schedule of the train after the speaking at Murray to-morrow night. The special train will return to Paducah from Murray, where it will be abandoned, and the party take the Illinois Central fast train for Louisville, arriving at 7:50 o'clock Wednesday morning.

Mr. Bryan's Aids Four In Number.

Owing to the fact that the special train will consist of only two coaches and a baggage car, the number composing the party accompanying Mr. Bryan will necessarily be limited. This was the best arrangement that Judge Henry B. Hines, chairman of the Democratic State Campaign Committee could make. On the special, besides Mr. Bryan, will be Gov. J. C. W. Beckham, Judge S. W. Hager, Democratic nominee for Governor; Urey Woodson, Democratic National Committeeman from Kentucky; Senator Thomas H. Paynter, Congressman Ollie James, Congressman A. O. Stanley, John K. Hendrick, the nominee for Attorney General; H. V. McChesney, Secretary of State; Judge Thomas J. Nunn, of Court of Appeals; Judge Henry B. Hines, chairman of the Democratic State Campaign Committee; Dr. Milton Board, chairman of the Speakers' Committee; John F. Hager, of Ashland; Hon. Henry M. Bosworth, G. Thomas, of Mayfield, and J. A. Sullivan, who is one of the closest friends of Senator James H. McCreary.

Col. W. B. Haldeman, editor of The Evening Times, had planned to be one of the party on the Bryan special through Western Kentucky, but he was forced to abandon the trip because of his health, and, instead, left yesterday afternoon for Martinsburg, Ind. Before leaving the city Col. Haldeman addressed a letter to Judge Henry B. Hines, chairman of the Democratic Campaign Committee, and one also to Mr. Bryan, in which he expressed regret that he would be unable to accompany them on the two days' speaking tour because of illness. In his letter to Mr. Bryan, Col. Haldeman assured the Nebraskan that he was for him to receive the Democratic nomination for the presidency in the next National Democratic Convention.

The Hon. J. A. Sullivan, who is the Democratic nominee for Representative in Madison county, goes on the trip at the request of Senator McCreary. The Senator sent a telegram to Judge Henry B. Hines, in which he thanked him for the invitation to accompany the party, but said that he was prevented by the illness of his wife. Ward Headley, of Princeton, arrived in the city Saturday night to go on the special train, but at the earnest solicitation of Dr. Board yesterday afternoon he consented to go to Lebanon to-day and fill the appointment for the Hon. Charles J. Bronston, who is ill at his home in Lexington. Mr. Headley will return to Louisville to-night and take the train immediately for Owensboro, where he will join the Bryan special for to-morrow's run through the Second and First Congressional districts. Ruby Laffoon, who speaks at Campbellsville to-day, will also join the Bryan party at Owensboro to-night.

Dr. Milton Board had a force busy yesterday afternoon and last night putting the special train in order and stocking it with the necessities for making the trip. The party will eat and sleep on the train, so that no time will be lost for meals. All those who will make the trip arrived in the city yesterday and last night. Judge Hager and the Hon. John K. Hendrick arrived yesterday from the Ninth Congressional district, where they campaigned last week. They spent the day at headquarters conferring with politicians who called. Gov. Beckham spent yesterday at Lakeland and came down to Louisville last night. Senator Paynter and the Hon. Jere A. Sullivan arrived last night.

The Democratic headquarters presented a busy scene all yesterday and last night. Several photographers were kept busy all day arranging details and instructions to representatives at various points. Yesterday afternoon Judge Hines concluded that he would like to have Hubert Vreeland, nominee for Secretary of State, make the trip. To do this, Judge Hines was compelled to cancel the appointment of Mr. Vreeland to speak at Edmonston to-day. Mr. Vreeland will likely speak at Edmonston later in the campaign. Mr. Vreeland has an extensive acquaintance among the farmers of Western Kentucky and for this reason he was urged by Judge Hines to join the party.

Slight Change In Schedule.

A slight change was made in the schedule of the special train yesterday afternoon. The train will arrive at Elizabethtown, the first stop at 8:40 o'clock this morning instead of 9 o'clock as first scheduled. At Elizabethtown, H. V. McChesney will leave the special train and speak to the crowd after the special train leaves. At Paducah, Thomas W. Thomas will address the crowd after the special train leaves.

I do not think William Jennings Bryan could have come to Kentucky at a more opportune time. The people of Kentucky are in a humor to listen to him, especially in the western part of the State, where the sentiment is in favor of the great Nebraskan and is stronger and growing stronger. He will strengthen the Democratic State ticket and, I think, convince many people who are wavering that their duty is to vote straight for their party's candidates.

The situation all over the State looks good. I never did think the Republicans had a ghost of a show of winning this fall, and I am fully convinced of the fact that at this stage of the campaign we are gaining every day. The Democrats are enthused more than they have been since the campaign of 1892—that year, H. H. Hays, Chairman Democratic State Campaign Committee.

Short stops will likely be made at Horse Cave and Smith's Grove. At Bowling Green, John K. Hendrick will address the crowd after the train leaves and Congressman Ollie James will speak at Russellville. At Central City, Everett Jennings will address the crowd after the Bryan train leaves for Owensboro.

The first day's trip of Mr. Bryan will be through the Fourth, Third and a part of the Second Congressional districts. On the second day he is only scheduled to speak at one point in the Second Congressional district, that being Morganfield. The remainder of the speeches will be made in the First district. It is likely that the Bryan special will make a short stop at Livermore, McLean county, which is between Central City and Owensboro. To-night Mr. Bryan will address the citizens of Owensboro.

Second Day a Busy One.

The first stop to be made on the second day will be at Morganfield, where John K. Hendrick will address the citizens of Union county after the Bryan train proceeds on its journey. At Princeton, Congressman A. O. Stanley will address the crowd after the train leaves for Paducah. At Mayfield, Congressman Ollie James will speak and H. V. McChesney will speak at Fulton. The young lady is prostrated with grief to-night.

WESTERN PART OF STATE NEXT

Hager To Visit Pennyrile and Purchase

Monday and Tuesday On the Bryan Special.

Satisfied With Results In Ninth District.

APATHY AMONG REPUBLICANS.

Maysville, Ky., Oct. 6.—[Special.]—Tired and somewhat worn as a result of long drives, Judge S. W. Hager, Democratic candidate for Governor, is spending Sunday in Frankfort resting for the coming week, when he will have a hard trip. He will go on the Bryan special for the first two days of the week, will then jump back to Louisville for a part of a day, and then back to Western Kentucky for the remainder of the campaign.

The trip through the Ninth district, which gave a Republican majority last year, was a successful one, and from the reports received by the candidate in the counties in which he spoke, the district will be found in the Democratic columns this year with a good safe majority. In several of the counties it was found that the Republicans are not working and take no special interest in the campaign, while in some of the counties in the Sixth Appellate district there is soreness over the defeat of Samuel Holmes, who was a candidate for the Republican nomination.

Making Conveyance Ready.

Dr. Milton Board had a force busy yesterday afternoon and last night putting the special train in order and stocking it with the necessities for making the trip. The party will eat and sleep on the train, so that no time will be lost for meals. All those who will make the trip arrived in the city yesterday and last night. Judge Hager and the Hon. John K. ## SPENDS QUIET DAY IN CAMP

Roosevelt Rests In Anticipation of Hunt To-day.

Noted Hunter Arrives To Scare Up Big Game.

Expect the President To Get a Shot At Bear.

PLENTY OF DEER ABOUT.

Stamboul, La., Oct. 6.—The President spent the day quietly in his camp on Texas bayou with the intention of beginning his hunt early to-morrow. This report is not official, but comes through natives who are keeping a close eye upon the movements of the Chief Executive as the courtless will permit.

At 5 o'clock Assistant Secretary Latta, who is located about ten miles from the camp, reported to the President's representatives here that he has not received a word from his chief since he landed in camp, but he added that he was certain that he had not attended camp. Residents who heard this statement confirmed it because there is, they say, no church for him to attend.

There is quite a canvas village where the camp is pitched. It consists of seven tents, most of which are occupied by living apartments by the President and his party. The President's own tent is a walled structure about fifteen feet square, and there is a large mess tent and also a cooking tent.

Horse For the President.

The President has been supplied with a big bay horse by Manager Shields, of the Parker plantations, but will not use him when on the hunt, trained ponies being supplied for this purpose. The hunting force of the party has been re-enforced by the addition of Ben Litley, a professional sportsman who emigrated from this section to Texas many years ago, but who had even then made so excellent a reputation as a nimrod that it has survived all this time, and was strong enough to cause him to be sent for and brought all the way from Texas for the present emergency.

He has, in former days, hunted all the cane brakes hereabouts, and is said to know every nook and cranny in them. Indeed, it is asserted by his admirers that he does not even need to enter a particular bit of woods to determine what game it contains, or whether it contains any.

Expect To Find Bear.

People hereabouts express confidence that some bear will be bagged and they are even more assuring on the subject of deer. They say the woods are full of deer, of the Virginia variety, but the disquieting rumor has gone abroad that many of them are dying of the disease known as black tongue. The party will be augmented by the addition of a Mr. Metcalf, a friend of Messrs. Melhenny and Parker, who will escort the negro bear killer, Holt Collier, who will bring with him twenty-one of his own dogs. There will be therefore, three professional hunters in the crowd. Collier, Litley, and a negro named Brutus Jackson. All have their own dogs.

NEGRO LYNCHED AT CUMBERLAND, MD.

WILLIAM BURNS TAKEN FROM JAIL AND SHOT TO DEATH.

MURDER OF POLICEMAN AUGUST BANTER AVENGED.

POLICE CAUGHT UNPREPARED.

Cumberland, Md., Oct. 6.—The first lynching in the history of Cumberland occurred early this morning, when William Burns, a negro desperado who had killed Policeman August Banter, was shot to death. Banter's death on Saturday was followed by threats against the negro, these coming as much from negroes as from whites.

The police paid no attention to the rumors that were afloat. Only Deputy Sheriff Adam Pendley was at the jail when, after midnight, a hundred men appeared and demanded the keys. These being refused, a telegraph pole was used as a battering ram and an entrance to the building was forced. Other negroes in neighboring cells were careful to guide the lynchers to the cell of Burns, and here again the battering ram was used. The lynching party found their victim crouched behind his cot, and, seizing him by the feet, dragged him down stairs and into the street, where, within a few yards of the jail, Burns was kicked and shot to death. The Rev. W. Cleveland Hicks, an Episcopal clergyman, did his best to save the negro, and afterwards protected the body until the arrival upon the scene of Judge A. Hunter Boyd and the police. Judge Boyd called the crowd to disperse, and in this was promptly obeyed. The body was removed to an undertaking establishment and 10,000 persons are estimated to have viewed it to-day.

DID NOT INDORSE JUDGE A. R. BURNAM

MADISON DEMOCRATS HAD NO THOUGHT OF GIVING APPROVAL TO ANY REPUBLICAN NOMINATION.

Richmond, Ky., Oct. 6.—[Special.]—The statement made in a dispatch from Richmond and published in the Sunday Courier-Journal that the Democratic convention which nominated the Hon. J. A. Sullivan for the Legislature also indorsed Judge A. R. Burnam, a Republican nominee for Senator, was an error. There was no thought on the part of the convention of indorsing any Republican for any office, nor was such a proposition made in any form. The Democrats of Madison county are Evansville, Ind., Oct. 6.—[Special.]—Frank Freeman, a well-known Democratic politician, died here to-night after a lingering illness. He was engaged to be married to Miss Marie Schorr, well known socially, and several days ago, realizing he could not recover, he had him removed to his home, where she and her mother helped to cheer him during his last moments. The young lady is prostrated with grief to-night.
